Hats—Special Notification to Gentlemen.—
On the occasion of inviting the attention of their customers, as well as the generality of the public, to their arrangements for the spring and summer. Warnocks, Hatters, Irving House, 275 Broadway, are anxions to give expression to a determination to continue their business on the same distinctive principles as have heretofore elevated their establishment and given it the pre-eminence so generally conseeded. The high standing reputation of their fabric, reper them tonacious of not falling into the common error of the day, by premising in advertisements more than is consistent with fact, and yet wish to proclaim that they are fully alive to the advantage of availing themselves of every novelty and new invention which tends either to improve or really to the advantage of availing themselves of every novelty and new invention which tends either to improve or really to the advantage of availing themselves of every novelty and the trade snables them to secure an early transmission of the newest bashions, while a just appreciation of our native articles conduce to every attention being given to the American styles. An extensive knowledge of the market, with abundant facilities, combined with a determination always to have the very best they offer, insures the use only of such material, as will tend to upheld the character of the house. Having briefly placed these facts before gentlemen who are decirous of purchasing where the truth of representations may be relied on, we respectfully invite imprection of our manufactures. WARNOCKS, Hatters, 275 Broadway, Irving House.

Gaiters only Twelve Shillings a Pair.—Are you aware, ladies that you can procure really neat and serviceable gaiters at Cantrell's, No. 336 Bowery, for the low price of 12s, per pair? An examination of these articles will convince you, than in excellence of material and make they quite equal the articles sold at much higher rates at other establishments, and that they are fully entitled to your patronage. CANTRELL'Sascriment of "coverings for the feet" is very largo, and his prices unusually reasonable.

The Press and the Stage.—While Editors and managers are quarreling with each other about actors and critics, there is no difference of opinion on one subject.
